

I urge you to leave Wisconsin's NoCall list as it is and not weaken it. Telemarketing calls are one more stressor that disrupts family life, usually at suppertime. Please serve the people and don't give in to pressure from the Banking industry or any other business group. Thank you.